Hi. I'm Danielle!

SPEAKER/ COACH/ EDUCATOR

Eight years ago, no one was seeking the support of a friendship coach. But times have changed.

I'm a former high school teacher who now uses her education background to share what the latest research has to say about women's cooperation, communication and conflict.

I'm a recurring guest expert on the Emmy-award winning show Tamron Hall, The Skimm, NBC News and The New York Times. My book, Fighting for our Friendships: The Science and Art of Conflict and Connection in Women's Friendships was released in May 2024 and has been featured on some of Apple and Spotify's top-ranking shows.

Now I work with organizations to help them design programming, workshops, and curriculum to create connections among their female-dominated teams as the Director of the Women's Relational Health Institute. I also train and certify other women to become a relational health coach through the WRHI Program.
